Thompson (Late a Representative From Alabama): Memorial Addresses Delivered in the House of Representative and Senate, Second Session of the Fifty-Eighth Congress The House met at 12 o clock noon. The Chaplain, Rev. Henry N. Couden, offered the following prayer: Our Father who art in Heaven, profoundly impressed with the uncertainty of our earthly existence by the removal of another of our Congressional family, cut off in the midst of a useful and successful career, we most fervently pray that we may so order our lives that when the summons comes we shall be ready with faith and confidence to move forward, realizing that death is not an extinction of being, but an epoch, an event in the grand eternal march of existence. Be graciously near to those whose hearts have been touched, wounded by this death. Comfort them by the blessed thought that though he may not come to them, they shall surely go to him and dwell with him in the realms of eternal peace. Hear us in the name of Him who taught us the resurrection and the life, for Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
