

DOWNLOAD

The Theme of Partition in Indian English Novels: A Select Study

By Kumar Ray, Lohit

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | The book presents a thematic study of the Indian English novels written on the theme of partition of the Indian subcontinent that took place in 1947. The intention here is to examine the traumatic experience of the partition and its effect on the human beings. It analyzes also causes of the fateful decision of the partition that forced the millions of people to migrate and face the barbarity of the communal frenzy which results the numerous atrocities, rapes, abductions and violence. It attempts to bring out a record how human disaster and the pitiable condition have been taken place during the gruesome period of the partition. The book covers Chaman Nahal's Azadi (1975) and Khushwant Singh's Train to Pakistan (1956), who occupies an important place in Indian English novels. Both Chaman Nahal and Khushwant Singh are known for their outstanding creation of Indian fictions which based on the theme of partition. The book will certainly help the students of Indian Writing in English and for those who are interested in Indian history. | Format: Paperback | Language/Sprache: english | 97 gr | 220x150x3 mm | 60 pp.

READ ONLINE

[4.24 MB]

Reviews

This book will never be straightforward to start on reading through but quite enjoyable to learn. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Your lifestyle span will probably be convert once you complete reading this publication.

-- Dr. Kadin Hane DVM

This publication may be worth purchasing. it was actually writtern quite flawlessly and valuable. I am just happy to tell you that this is actually the very best book i actually have study inside my personal life and can be he best ebook for actually.

-- Frank Nienow