Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Catalogue of the Portraits and Other Objects of Historic Value: Belonging to the Old Colony Historical Society, Taunton, Massachusetts, U. S. A., January 1, 1907 The Old Colony Historical Society was incorporated May 4, 1853. The objects of the Society are to preserve and perpetuate the history of the Old Colony in Massachusetts, and to collect, hold and preserve documents, books, memoirs and other matters relating to its history. The Society s stated and quarterly meetings are held in Historical Hall, now owned by the Society, and its valuable collections of books and relics are contained in its recently erected library annex, which is a place of safe deposit. The records of its proceedings are already partly published in six collections. Nearly seven hundred members, life, resident, corresponding and honorary, are enrolled upon its register. The work of the Society is conducted under the management of a board of directors which is chosen annually. Its annual income is derived chiefly from its regular fees, and its future prosperity and material growth must largely depend upon the encouragement which it shall receive from the co-operation and bequests of its members. The annual membership is $1.00 per year. The life-membership is $10.00. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
