Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Is there adventure in your soul? Is there adventure but maybe it's been tempered by the notion that you are too old to wander around the planet hefting not much more than a backpack and a large dose of optimism? If so, take heart. This book is a most important read for you! It's filled with tips, inspiration, stories and lots of excellent reasons to follow your senior citizen heart into the great unknown. You'll find lots of support and understanding if your unknown happens to be just a tad outside the comfort zone typically accepted in your circle of retired friends. If you have dreamed of travel and due to advanced years, finally have the time and freedom to go, you're almost certain to have some fun between these covers. Maybe you fit the description of a would-be vagabond, but believe the cost of extended travel transforms your hot fantasies to see the world into a mere pipe dream. You just might find enlightenment between these covers and discover some schemes that could, with a bit of boldness, enable you to fly away into your dreams. This book will NOT send you off to tour 13 countries in 30 days with backpack, tent, cookware and sleeping bag. It is intended to keep you sleeping in clean beds, blending into wonderful cultures, avoiding highway robbers and maybe seeing only two or three countries in a whole year. It does not promote seeing other lands as much as it promotes being in amazing foreign countries where you can really absorb the culture and color of at least some of the rest of the planet from an up close...
