Roger Cannon, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .drive-by shooting. small city. big mistake. murdered latino gangster. hunt down those responsible. now. 17-year-old Jaime Kimo Flores is weeks away from graduation at Chavez High in Bell Gardens. Jaime has his foot in three worlds: he s a talented art student; he s a promising future cop in a Police Explorer program; and, as Kimo, he s the informal leader of a crew of graffiti writers. A drive-by shooting results in the death of a gang member just released from jail. Things heat up when Posse leaders demand retribution for the death of their man. They are intent on first identifying, then hunting down the occupants of the drive-by vehicle. In this small community in southeastern Los Angeles, the continuation high school is considered one of the best in the state. Families work hard to earn a living. The police in town try to keep the streets safe, but these positives camouflage deadly and vindictive forces in the community. Nothing is quite what it seems. This story reveals a rare look into the guarded worlds of graffiti crews and street gangs. These subcultures are seen through Jaime s eyes as he struggles to stay ahead of the malevolence that is cutting down those closest to him. Jaime s worlds can no longer be separated. He must choose before others choose for him.
