Xlibris Corporation, United States, 2005. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This book is about a fictitious university, St. Armitage (Armitage), as related by Jack Burns, professor of political science. The work covers 15 events during Burn s academic career, ranging, for example, from (1) being a dean to (2) chaperoning the I Felta Thigh fraternity Mountain Man Stomp to (3) directing, as a senior faculty member, the annual homecoming. Most of the university cycle of events are covered, with Burns the protagonist While perusing these stories, some readers will be shocked. Others will be amused. Some may even say, That s my university! None, I hope will be bored. Universities are somewhat bizarre institutions .that generally succeed in spite of themselves. They are called on to ripen callow 18 year olds, and Viola! these pimply freshmen somehow in four years metamorphose into suave seniors. Student development is aided and abetted by the faculty, who regard universities as locations that pay them to talk about Etruscan pottery or Shakespeare s sonnet. Best of all, universities make students pay tuition to drowse through these esoteric lectures. This is a liberal arts education, . which fortuitously wears away with time . It s clear that faculty play an crucial role in maturing students during their university stay, but it s a mystery how this maturation occurs. Perhaps faculty lectures, falling on tired ears, merely age rather than mature students. Perhaps it s the isolation required for natural student growth, since most students vanish from sight upon registration, emerging from the university only to demand money. Both students and faculty are united against a third group comprised of administrators, deans and presidents, who feebly administer theuniversity. Using the words administer and university in the same...
