Equine press. Paperback. Condition: New. 106 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. This book is about horses, but, more importantly, it's about relationships with horses. Relationships come in all forms; we have relationships with our families, our friends, animals, and the universe. Our views of the world form relationships that whisper clues about the inner mysteries of the universe. The equestrian world is filled with mysterious tales of courage and hope, strength, and achievement. It has given me the perfect medium through which to express my writings. At the center of every relationship is love, that mysterious longing for union. Equestrians love their horses. Their journeys are constant searches for deeper connections to their horses. Inside the heart of every rider is a secret yearning to reach the furthest potentials of horse and human interaction. Like all relationships, that interaction is a mystery--it can't be thought out; it must be experienced. There's a difference between reading about horses and getting on one. We need both, but the latter will give us more understanding than any book could ever teach. Through experience and knowledge, we can change our lives and expand our hearts into the greater realms of the universe. This book is a poetic attempt to expand your heart to greater equestrian joy. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
