OPOSSUMS, SHREWS AND MOLES OF BRITISH COLUMBIA (PAPERBACK)

University of British Columbia Press, Canada, 1996. Paperback. Condition: New. UK ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book. British Columbia has the greatest diversity of insectivores (shrews and moles) of any Canadian province: twelve species. In some habitats, insectivores are the dominant mammals. British Columbia s only marsupial, the North American opossum, was brought here by humans from eastern North America. But humans rarely see any of these mammals, except for the occasional shrew brought in by the family cats...
