This book may be worth purchasing. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

ISTANBUL MODERN, Istanbul, 2012. Soft cover. Condition: New. Paperback in artistic design. Pbo. 121, [3] p. In English and Turkish. B/w and color photos. The gaze of the portrait's subject reaches not only the lens of the camera but the future viewer as well. The sitter poses consciously to leave a message to the future from his/her own time. Boundless possibilities for communication and meaning arise from the relationship the subject establishes with future viewers through photograph. At the point where gazes intersect, the portrait stands at the very center of a network established between different times and spaces; each gaze opens the door for another existence. Gaze - The Changing Face of Portrait Photography sheds light on the 160 years of portrait photography through the works of 54 photographers selected from the Bank of America collection. The show does not just look at portrait photography but also traces the social and artistic transformation that has taken place from the emergence of photography to the present. The exhibition is part of Bank of America Merrill Lynch's art loaning program: Art in our Communities. This unique initiative allows museums and non-profit galleries worldwide to borrow complete or customized exhibitions at no cost. Artists: Dieter Appelt, Shelby Lee Adams, Henry Clay Anderson, Diane Arbus, Richard Avedon, Tina Barney, Erwin Blumenfeld, Mathew B.
