Sabin, President of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as Chairman of Group 8 of the Ne York State Bankers Association, at the Annual Dinner of Group 8, Monday, January 17, 1921 American bankers, can View With satisfaction the record of the year they have just closed, and the prospects of the year to come. They have reason to be proud of the measure of service rendered, of stability maintained, of economic sanity and sound earnings Which have attended their efforts. N evel before in the history of the country have its credit resources been subjected to such a strain, and never before have recurrent crises been so adequately met and the business interests of the country so fully protected against dangerous tendencies. Thanks to a sound and elastic banking system and to the intelligent cofiperation and Wise direction of the banking institu tions of the country, the United States has passed through a period of violent reaction, falling markets, and -a world-wide economic disturbance Without serious fatalities. Today we feel assured that, although there are many readjustments yet to be made in the months and years to come, there is every reasonable assurance of a return to more normal, business conditions, stabilized prices, easier money and larg er business opportunities during the current year.
