Excerpt from Golden Jubilee Year of the Oldest, Largest and Most Popular Company in Canada, the Canada Life Assurance Company Canadian institutions are making themselves felt not only in the British Empire itself but in foreign countries. Clear-headed writers of the United States press are taking notice of our achievements and progress, and the following testimonies from two financial journals of New York illustrate the very high opinion which is held of a Canadian institution in which thousands of persons in this country take a pardonable pride. As a sign of the times these opinions are worthy of notice. The New York Insurance Journal says The achievements of the Canada Life Assurance Company are an evidence of what can be attained by upright and active men with the ability to transact business honestly and untiringly with the best interests of their clients. The company is under a most progressive management, and having arrived at its semi centennial, jubilee year, its record of half a century is of more than passing interest. The management of the Canada Life, its liberality, its treatment of policyholders, are all on the highest plane, and as to the solidity of the company and the integrity of its management, the company stands in the first rank.
