Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. A mid-night experience with my dear bride, Barbara, was the beginning of DID YOU KNOW? She has a way of asking me questions at dark-thirty at night. She nudged me in the back about six times before I was awake enough to understand that she was about to unload a new midnight nugget. Actually, it was well past midnight . closer to 3:00 AM. She had been reading her Bible. She s a night person and does a lot of her scripture reading at dark hours. But when she has a question, she takes the scriptures quite literally where Paul told the women to ask their husbands at home. The 3:00 AM hour has never been a deterrent to her. I asked her once if these discussions could wait for morning, and she replied that she could always call her Pastor. Even at 3:00 AM, I knew she would have no problem with picking up her cell phone and calling me with her question just to get her Pastor s response. Here is her beginning question: Did you know, in the New Jerusalem there will be one continuous day; never a night? But there will be a river flowing through the city, and it will have fruit trees on both sides of the river. The fruit will have a new crop every month. So . are you ready for this at 3:00 AM? . If there is no night, only one continuous day . how long is a month? This and similar questions became the stimulus for me to answer the questions in a short format. Then, it graduated into reading short scripture passages and commenting on them in about 400...
