Excerpt from Report of the Case John Dorrance Against Arthur Fenner: Tried at the December Term, of the Court of Common Pleas, in the County of Providence, A. D. 1801 The principal object of the following publication is a desire to correct the strange misrepresentations of the evidence given, and the proceedings of the Court, at the trial here related, which have been unduly circulated particularly in the country part of the State. Whatever may be our sentiments in regard to the merits of the Cause, or the merits of the respective parties, we have uniformly been anxious that this work should be considered with a fair regard to candour and correctness. It is submitted to the public, under a perfect recollection, of the multitude of Witnesses who are knowing to the truth, or the falsehood, of the facts here related and who will compare the representations here made with the transactions they saw and heard at the trial. It is also submitted, that party prejudices and interested inducements will probably feel...
