Condition: New. In Even Her Tears Were Yellow, Stephen Logston recounts the short but inspiring life of a young girl Chelsea, who ultimately lost her life through the long wait she had to endure for a donor liver. The book tells of the courage and determination Chelsea showed throughout her life and the wonderful bond she had with her mother and the author Stephen. The importance of organ donation is paramount in this moving story which shows that even with the best care and medical expertise, without the donated organ this is not enough. The ongoing work to promote organ awareness that Stephen and his wife continue to do is a legacy to their very special girl - Chelsea.
