Foreword: THE STORY of the service of our army chaplains goes back to our American Revolution, when General George Washington appointed the first clergyman as a chaplain. Since 1776, in peace as well as in war, clergymen of all faiths have served in the armed forces. Never before, however, in the history of our nation has there been so great a need for the spiritual guidance of the Church than in this world struggle against the forces of brutality and aggression. For this is a war against hatred, persecution, and godlessness a war against a combination of evil men who would take from us the very liberties for which our forefathers came to this land. If we are to succeed in this titanic battle for God's truth and justice on earth, then we must be guided by His wisdom and strengthened by His power. Just as have all Americans, so the members of the various religious faiths have given generously of their personnel so that in our camps, at home, at...
