Reviews

This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

But as our cover photo shows, the real news was no such isolation of Putin, but the new moves by the BRICS that we report in this issue. Chinese President Xi Jinping's emphasis on the inclusiveness of his New Silk Road policy and the institutions the BRICS countries are putting into place is vividly illustrated in our Feature, Integrating the Nile Basin with Modern Transport. Hussein Askary and Dean Andromidas provide a blueprint of Africa's requirements for a triad of infrastructure: road, rail, and maritime transport. The legacy of Africa's colonial past-railroads that go only from the mines to the ports to expedite imperial looting-is finally beginning to be overcome, with China playing a leading role. Our Science section addresses the energy and infrastructure requirements of the 21st...
