Bloomsbury Publishing PLC, United Kingdom, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This is my first tax return. Thank you.erm for offering to.for helping. I realise it s a bit weird. It s just. This is.it s the only way I can think to make it better. The only way I can think to do it. With other people. Like this. Tax is really, really taxing for Ben Edwards. Self-employed. And afraid.And now he must face his dreaded self assessment form, with every receipt evoking the good times and the bad - memories of things gone wrong, gone right, the journeys he s been on, the relationships that have begun and ended and the people he has lost. As Ben begins to stitch together the patchwork quilt that was the Tax Year 2009/2010, he relives a year that was both hilarious and tragic, all mixed up in one shoe box of receipts. Award-winning playwright James Graham presents an affectionate and funny portrait of one man s year-long experience, pieced together from receipts, shopping and commercial transactions. With a web of narratives, the play s structure is innovative and flexible. In performance, each receipt triggers a unique story and the actor plucks the receipts from the audience s hands at random.
