Brand New Book  Print on Demand . There is nothing greater to a child then when he or she is young, than the power of imagination. It is our duty as good parents to help nurture and grow the vast imagination of our children. By showing and giving our support by reading to them and with them. Thus producing many good memories and having time being well spent as a stable family. The power of being loving involved parents helps our children. To build self-confidence self-esteem and self-worth. So go on an imaginary adventure with your children. Run with them play with them and teach them. That they can be responsible children as well as have fun. Walk with them on a local trail and tell scary stories. Or sit by a camp fire and tell spooky tales. Whatever or however you decided to do with your children. To enrich your child with wonderful stories of folklore. You give them a sense of imaginative history. That they too can tell and write stories for and with their children. Also for the many generations to come. As a family even silly funny or really spooky stories can be shared and retold forever. So grab a spooky book or make up your own and tell each other the eerie stories. That give you delightful chills and thrills and Goosebumps even spine tinglers to your heart s desire. Read along scream along and remember the spooky tales. Of monster s ghosts and other creatures that stir around at night. Then lounge forward with a great fright to scare all with joy mu ha ha ha! But beware the noises...
