Provenance: A Novel

By Donna Drew Sawyer

Creative Cache. Paperback. Condition: New. 334 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.8in. PROVENANCE is a thrilling and emotional tale about the redemptive power of love, the healing influence of the arts and the ultimate aspiration freedom. In an expansive saga that weaves historical fact with fiction across five decades and three generations, PROVENANCE is the story of one American family determined to escape the barriers of race, class and gender. A fateful accident changes the course of Hank Whitakers life. Now, decades later, another accident forces him to change everything for his family. On his death bed, Hank confesses to his wife, Maggie, and 18-year-old son, Lance, that he is a black man passing for white. Hanks revelation and Virginias racial integrity laws make Maggie a criminal and, despite his racially ambiguous appearance, Lance must now abide by the brutally restrictive laws that govern the lives of Negroes in the segregated south. At the insistence of Maggies indomitable mother Charlotte, the family flees the provincial south for Paris; hoping to defy racism like many African Americans did in the early 20th century. Seeking solace in the cafs, clubs, salons and art galleries, as well as the boudoirs of the City of Light,...
