Outskirts Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 231 x 155 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The poetry collection in Dancing With Grandfather is an American Indian star quilt. Each poem is a square of its own color and design. There are poems of love and love lost, sewed together with observations on American Indian life in a multi-cultural setting, connected on the sides with sports and family challenges of our times. Only the reader can determine if there is a pattern or design to the poem quilt. Open the book to any page and sample a small colored poem square to decide if this quilt book is a must read for you. A blank page is placed opposite each poem for your use. Write a comment about the poem you just read, write a poem of your own, or use the blank page like a movie screen and let your creative mind blend the words and mental images. These poems are not about the author s struggles, pitfalls, lessons and surprises in life. Nor are they about the beauty he sees in creation and the creative process of living. The poems are a search for DNA trails leading the reader and the author to remembered information. This may be a path to the information, lessons in history, knowledge, love, and survival given to you by thousands of your ancestors. The 111 poems have 60 pen and ink drawings to lead the reader on to the poem s stage for exploration and understanding, often with a humorous bite. In his poems Geezer Wedding, Buzzards, The Home That Isn t, Taxes April 15, and Bed Bugs, Clever cuts a poetic trail through timely issues faced by older Americans. These issues include marrying late in...
