Accountability Office, 2008 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)278802860 Subject: Privacy, Right of -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Additionally, two of HHS's key advisory groups continued to develop and provide recommendations to the Secretary of HHS for addressing privacy issues and concerns: The Confidentiality, Privacy, and Security Workgroup was formed in 2006 by the American Health Information Community to focus specifically on these issues and has submitted recommendations to the community that address privacy principles. Among these are recommendations related to the notice principle that the workgroup submitted in February and April 2008. These recommendations stated that health information exchange organizations should provide patients, via the Web or another means, information in plain language on how these organizations use and disclose health information, their privacy policies and practices, and how they safeguard patient or consumer information. The work group also submitted recommendations related to the administrative requirements principle, stating that the obligation to provide individual rights and a notice of privacy practices under HIPAA should remain with the health care provider or plan that has an established, independent...

Reviews

This is the greatest book i have read through till now. It usually fails to charge excessive. You can expect to like how the blogger publish this ebook.
-- Adan Dickinson

This publication will not be simple to get started on looking at but quite entertaining to learn. It generally fails to cost an excessive amount of. You will not feel monotony at anytime of your time (that's what catalogues are for about if you ask me).
