

That You May Know God Has a Purpose (Paperback)

By Louise Hammell

Xulon Press, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Through the death of one son and the brain cancer of another, Louise had peace, trusting that her sovereign God had purpose in what He allowed to touch her life. Her story begins on the night that 17 year-old Matthew Hammell was killed by a hit and run drunk driver. From the first night of their tragedy there was evidence of God's presence. Soon after Matt died, Louise felt God leading her to write down every event in which she recognized God's hand. Her journal is the main part of the book and is filled with entries that display the glory of God. Some entries reveal God's heart in the tender ways He ministered His love and comfort. Other entries tell of all of the good things that have come out of this tragedy. Ten years after Matt died, Louise's oldest son Ron Jr. was diagnosed with brain cancer. Again God led her to pick up her pen. It is an inspiring chapter that will encourage faith for healing. Ron Jr. is cancer free! The underlying message...
