POEMS TO ENJOY, BOOK 5

Proverse Hong Kong. Paperback. Condition: New. 192 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.4in. Dr Bickleys series of five graded poetry anthologies POEMS TO ENJOY is a well-established tool for learning and teaching English at all levels. Useful notes and a teaching guide are included. The poems in Book 5 are grouped as Poems to Speak, Pictures in Poetry and The Poet as Storyteller. Among them are some which are traditional and timeless, as well as poems that inform us how children and adults thought at different periods of time, including at an earlier period of technological sophistication. As in this five-book anthology as a whole, individual poems in Poems to Enjoy: Book Five express and model many emotions - tenderness, amusement, admiration, wonder, sadness - and elicit many others - sympathy, concern. Some of the descriptive poems express and teach observation and appreciation of the human and natural worlds. The poems concern various topics which can be used for class or other discussion, written response, and/or personal consideration: Human Life; Mystic Experience; Love, devotion, loyalty, innocence, modesty, keeping a promise, providing for ones family; Sadness and nostalgia; The emotions provoked by war; the immorality of war; Politics and history; Repetitive work and the exploitation of the individual craftsman; Noise pollution; various Perspectives on the sea and life at sea in the days of sailing-ships (conveying also a variety of human inter-relationships, courage and also patriotism); Different perspectives on the simple life; Leisure activities; Descriptions and evaluations of a person or type of person and Lessons drawn from their behaviour with a variety of tone; Animals; Culture; Philosophy. A variety of Language use, Technique and Poetic Form is used. The Teaching and Learning Notes and Guide contain suggestions for choral arrangements; definitions and explanations of words and phrases; suggestions for illustration...
