Not illustrated. 1881 Excerpt: .crown of the Hudson s Bay company was pending, this portion of their dominions was the scene of considerable contention and violence. The French-speaking population, led by Louis Riel, organized a force, imprisoned their English and Scotch opponents, seizeil fort Garry, established a provisional government, robbed the strong-box, and dictated terms to the governor of the Hudson s Bay company, to which he had to submit. A military force arrived in the province July, 1870, and Riel, fearing capture, escaped, an event which put an end to the insurrection. MANITOBA (ante). A considerable portion of this province is prairie-lnnd. diversified by patches of elm, ash, oak, poplar, and maple. The soil is a rich black mold, producing from 20 to 25 bushels of wheat to the acre, the grain ripening in 110 days. It produces also oats, barley, corn, hops, flax, hemp, potatoes, and all kinds of garden vegetables. The savannas of the Red river afford excellent pasturage. The winter climate, though severe, is declared to be milder than that of the Red river valley, farther south. The short summers are very warm. The climate, on the whole, is healthful. The Red river is valuable for navigation, except when it overflows its banks and inundates the surrounding country. The Canadian Pacific railway has its course through the province. A large proportion of the inhabitants are Roman Catholics, that religion having been established at an early day by missionaries to the Indians. A Roman Catholic archbishop resides...
