Book-Art Press Solutions LLC. Paperback. Condition: New. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Through a magnificent poetic diary of his public service experience, Mark Cleavenger humanizes the tremendous task he shouldered as both a police officer and lifeguard. Bringing delicately intrinsic subjects into poems, he shares the candor of atrocities witnessed first-hand, as well as the joy of wonders he modestly writes off as doing his job. This book shares a perspective I would otherwise take for granted. Sophia Gonzalez de La Cruz, Case Worker, Los Angeles County. This unique collection of a life in verse, is a piercing look into the soul of a public servant with not only a conscious - but a heart. Each piece is an amazing journey into the soul of a man. The writings take you through the gambit of human emotions and experience; love found and lost, pain, joy, heroism, insecurity, fear and courage. It is insightfully inspired and personally, it was a glimpse into a world I see every day yet will never touch. By bearing his burden in his writings, Mark Cleavenger shares with all, the weight felt when one is truly committed. Not only worth the read, this is a collection to be shared. Dr. S. Cooke, Professor of Sociology This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
