Why, Graudma, I said, And I held up my head, I m almost as old as you. My mother softly kissed my cheek, And then she blessed me, too, Praying that I, As years went by, Might be ever as good and true. My birthnight song is a merry one, And my heart is warm and light; Kind papa and mamma, And dear grandma, Sweet dolly, and kitty, good-night. A BOY S OPINION. THE girls may have their dollies, Made of chiua or of wax; I prefer a little hammer, And a paper full of tacks. There s such comfort in a chisel! And such music in a file! I wish that little pocket-saws Would get to be the style! My kite may fly up in the tree; My sled be stuck in mud; And all my hopes of digging wells Be nipped off in...
