Excerpt from Improvement Era, Vol. 8: Organ of Young Men s Mutual Improvement Associations; July, 1905 Mosheim, 1 cent, part 2, chapter 4, sec. 4, sums up this part of the argument thus: There are certain laws whose authority and obligations were universal and indispensable among Christians. All Christians were unanimous in setting apart the first day of the week on which the triumphant Savior arose from the dead, for the solemn celebration of public worship. This custom was derived from the example of the church of Jerusalem, was founded upon the express appointment of the apostles, and was observed universally by all the Christian churches, as appears from the united testimony of the most credible writers.
