Blue Elephant Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .God Set Me Up, Really! is a humorous and touching account of how God can change our lives in infinite ways in spite of our own stubbornness and desire for control. After two heartrending losses within the congregation, Rosemary finds herself temporarily leading the Church s Prayer Group. What began as a simple volunteer effort to serve became a life changing journey into the ways God works in each of our lives. Rosemary s newest book will bless, encourage, and minister LIFE to its readers. It is a great mixture, balancing just-right quantities of thought-provoking truths, insightful observations, and anointed analogies with a great sense of humor. The style and tone also balance the casual with some pretty serious theology. I m delighted to see her in print again! -Marion Winslow, Retired High School English Teacher, Guidance Counselor, and Assistant Administrator The Set-Up is about advancement-Divine advancement! Rosemary humorously shows how the Lord has advanced her into a position of authority and leadership that she had no plan or ambition to gain, and then the foremost Intercessor showed her a bit of His heart that she had not glimpsed before. She shares her heart and what she is learning from the compassionate Healer and Supplier of our needs-and as she advances, so we, her readers, advance with her. It was a pleasure to read her book! -Linda Harris, Intercessor This book shows how that even if you have a life plan, God still directs your steps. It provides insight on how everyday events can become messages from the Lord if you are willing to listen to His still small voice and obey. If you are ready and willing, He provides the...
