Stylus Publishing. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Journal Keeping: How to Use Reflective Writing for Effective Learning, Teaching, Professional Insight, and Positive Change, Dannelle D Stevens, Joanne E Cooper, "This is the book I wish that I'd had years ago when I first started experimenting with journals in my classes. I commend it highly, and believe it has the potential to bring journaling into more widespread and effective practice in reflective learning."?Teaching Theology and Religion"A superb tool for educators who want to be reflective practitioners, and help their students become reflective learners. I hope this fine book will be widely read and used."?Parker J. Palmer, author of The Courage to Teach "Stevens and Cooper offer multiple possibilities for readers to use journaling for personal growth, fostering their own and others learning, and managing professional life. ?Marcia B. Baxter Magolda, Distinguished Professor of Educational Leadership at the Miami University of Ohio"An impressively complete and well organized exploration of the uses of journal writing. It provides rich backing for John Dewey s key insight, namely that it s not experience that makes us learn, it s reflection on experience."?Peter Elbow, author of Writing with PowerOne of the most powerful ways to learn, reflect and make sense of our lives is through journal keeping. This book presents the potential uses and benefits of journals for personal and professional development particularly for those in academic life; and demonstrates journals potential to foster college students learning, fluency and voice, and creative thinking.In professional life, a journal helps to organize, prioritize and address the many expectations of a faculty member s or administrator s roles. Journals are effective for developing time management skills, building problem-solving skills, fostering insight, and decreasing stress.Both writing and rereading journal entries allow the journal keeper to document thinking; to track...
