Hermes Between the bounds Of light and darkness my commission is To mediate, when from the vaulted heaven Some swift decisive errand by my hand The Father warrants for these nether worlds, Be his solicitude for brief transient lives Or the soul s final destiny in store. He wills, he nods. Then, as a falling star That scars the welkin with a chain of fire And mortals say, Behold! there speaks a sign, So to terrestrial regions I dart down, As now. Or, sometime, to that lower realm, A ghostly monarch s yet unfear d domain. It is a token touching both him and those Who own his sway not yet, that I this hour Bring from imperial heaven. - Nor need they see Nor listen, when thus some mandate I proclaim To the frail mortal dwellers of this sphere. Let but the fixt omnipotent will ordain, Then shall it surely find each human soul. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at...
