

Twenty-Four Hours with God

By Kathleen Suzanne Turner

Xulon Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 108 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. Not everyone who says to Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. (Matthew 7: 21) This book speaks to every person who ever looked for happiness and didn't know where to turn; for every person who wanted love and never really felt it; for every person who longed for forgiveness for what they believed were unpardonable sins and didn't believe there was anyone to grant it; for every person that has wanted to go to a dark room and close the door because the world was just too much to bear. Kathleen Suzanne Turner, a writer, speaker, wife and mother lives in Georgia with her husband and step-son. She is currently working on her next non-fiction book entitled Getting to the Right Place on all the Wrong Roads. It chronicles her journey through six failed marriages, Multiple Sclerosis, multiple illnesses, rape, molestation, drug abuse, emotional abuse, adultery and estrangement from her two biological children. It is the happy ending to a life doomed to fail, if it were not for the love and forgiveness of...
