

Cosmos: A Poem

By James Applewhite

Louisiana State University Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 80 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.3in. x 0.3in. Throughout his long career, James Applewhite skillfully navigated the world of science through poetry. His new book makes no exception, fearlessly exploring time and consciousness in relation to the universe as described by Big Bang cosmology and as experienced by human beings in the everyday world. Applying experiences from his present-day life and also a multitude of memories from his childhood to scientific theories of the nature of the universe, the poet engages in a patient but relentless and finally deeply rewarding quest for a sense of meaning in a cosmos whose dimensions of space and time defy the human capacity to imagine. In his quest, Applewhite suggests the continuing possibility of a crucial connection to the universe through our seemingly tiny, evanescent experiences here on planet Earth. The poems in Cosmos help us value the human-related dimensions of being all the more as they are discerned against the cosmic vastness. We've known for a long time gravity doesn't exist, Dr. Verlinde said. This adhesion of all mass to itself is following the vector of energy downward with the thermodynamic arrow, which pierces us with our moments. The illusion encloses,...
