Hadean Pty Ltd, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .We all have to act. There is no choice between an active and an inactive life, a vita activa versus a vita contemplativa. We all have to sustain our body functions, we at least have to breathe - therefore, everybody has to act. Thus, everybody needs a book on how to act - Actionism - How to Become a Responsible Man. Written by renowned author Lennart Svensson, Actionism is footed in perennial metaphysics. Essential reality is immaterial, eternal ideas and patterns rest in the causal sphere where they affect the material world and material man, all incarnated souls in the confluence of samsAra. This kind of ontological background makes this into a refined selfhelp guide, the statements and assertions forming the core of the book being founded in the esoteric thought of western and eastern tradition. As intimated, a prominent place in the book is occupied by responsibility. The basic of all reality, of God, is will, thought and passion, and the individual human being, having a spark of the divine light, is a being of will, thought and passion. And from will is derived the value of responsibility, a much neglected virtue in the mindless emotionalism of today. Thus the subtitle of the book: How to Become a Responsible Man. Along with will there s a conceptualization of thought and passion, Actionism thus forming a valid ethic for the mindful operator of today. This is about eternal values, operational in your everyday. This is a serious essay in popular form, a tight but loose deliberation on the deathless issue of, How Shall I Act. The first seven chapters of the book lay the foundation, explaining the Actionist way of life with references...
