AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2004. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. I Kiss the Moon talks to the heart. Throughout the collection, the author confronts ever-changing life, the sad and the sweet, while leaving the reader with shades of hope upon her pages. The emotion and passion of each piece invites the reader into a place of wonderment, reflection and appreciation for the simplicities in a life where excess has slowly become the norm. There is no doubt that these poems are sincere and heartfelt; this poet isn't afraid of becoming vulnerable. T. Richard Williams Poet, author of David By The Sea, 21, Unshaven Bravo!! L.P. Chase. My visual of the author's writing is like peering through, and moving between two windows. One is a frame surrounded by the scorching flame of sadness and its subsequent pain. The other, panes framed by frost bitten introspection and subsequent perceptual gain. Bravo!! Prof. James W. Banks, R-CSW Dr. Love Millennium/Poetry Team Advisor Coordinator of Multicultural Affairs, Suffolk County Community College A fresh and pleasant addition to the poetry genre. Chase's imagery has been created with the human condition in mind. A very humble and satisfying read. Krissy Brady, Editor Brady Magazine.
