Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Christian Student There is not a feature or a point in the national character which has made England great among the nations of the world, that is not strongly developed and plainly traceable in our universities. For eight hundred or a thousand years they have been intimately associated with everything that has concerned the highest interests of the country. - Gladstone. It Is Time to Reap By John R. Mott. Now is the time to lead students to Jesus Christ. The field is ripe. There is not a collie or school in North America in which some men are not ready to consider and to yield to the claims of the Divine Saviour. If these men are not reached for Christ now while they are students, the probability is very great that they will never be brought under his sway. At a meeting of alumni the other day the question was asked, How many of your classmates who were not Christians on graduation have since become disciples of Christ? Not one in the company was able to give an instance of the kind. The present is the only opportunity of which we can be at all certain. Too many Christian students plan and act as though they had two or more student generations in which to do their work for Christ among their fellow-students. Every conscientious Christian student who is living near his Master has an impulse to win for Christ those within the range of his influence who know him not. That impulse springs from no evil or selfish source. It is caused by God himself working in him. Let not this impulse be...
