

The Nazi Grail: And Other Observations on the Labyrinths of the Mind (Paperback)

By Carlos Wigen

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The three essays that make up this volume all deal with the labyrinths of the mind, convoluted lines of reasoning that lead to eccentric and/or dangerous practices. The goal of the book is to present three cases of this; the Nazis brooding upon the idea of a higher kind of man, a short, literary history of misanthropy and, traits of Jewish identity and self-understanding that often appear as antics. The methodical approach is hermeneutic, relying heavily on historical, associative and linguistic analyses. The style of writing is essayistic, more personal and generalist than what is normally found in academic papers. Rather than picking a lexical definition of the phenomenon, like a psychological account of aberrations and their root causes, the text takes the longer and more scenic route of its historical manifestations and their impact on humankind. The Nazi grail takes us from an annual celebration on a mountaintop in France to the dark outlook of the ancient Gnostics and the history of those ideas up until our day of age. The essay on misanthropy, from the ancient Greeks to the...
