Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Macdonald College Journal, Vol. 1: October 1940 As was to be expected a wide variety of types of farming was encountered, and on the whole the farms were of a high order, but of course some were much better than others. The author believes that it will be well to point out some of the prevailing weaknesses. The purpose of this article, therefore, is to call special attention to some of the features related to the crop production aspects of the competition, that were not all that could be desired. While in many cases crops were quite good, none were as good as they could be, and in many there was considerable room for improvement. This was evidenced not alone by the fact that some of the crops were only fair, but also by the presence of considerable quantities of weeds in many cases. Of these the most important as judged by general prevalence, and their seriousness on some farms, may be mentioned, Couch Grass, Canada Thistle, Sow Thistle, Ragweed and Mustard. Of these, the first mentioned was without...
