Did you know that parenting teens frequently causes stress levels comparable to those associated with post-traumatic stress? Do you belong to the 80 of parents concerned about their teens and peer pressure? Are you one of those helicopter parents, hovering around in hopes of raising a happy teen that transitions successfully into adulthood, but find yourself exhausted or trapped in parenting anxiety and frustration, feeling helpless as you watch your teen make mistakes? Have you tried various parenting styles and still haven't figured out which strategies work for dealing with teens when they are acting out? Do you feel like you should win the prize for bad parenting? How can you help when your teen struggles? What does all this parental pressure and stress cost you? Your health? Your relationship with your teen or with other family members? Money and time? Want Your Teen to Listen? is full of practical advice, powerful techniques and real-life examples that can help you connect with your teen as it did for me with my 17-year-old son, says Jennet Appova, a UN Officer from NY. IS THERE A SHORTCUT TO YOUR TEEN'S EMOTIONAL BRAIN? What if learning a simple formula will get your teen to listen and cooperate, almost instantly and without resistance? Can you imagine going from hopeless struggle to never having to worry about your teen now or in the future while saving money and time on therapy and medication? IT'S ALL IN THE BOOK! After years of researching different behavior modification disciplines, observing clients, and her own teenage daughter's behavior, Dr. Viktoria Ter-Nikoghosyan has put together a unique and simple, but powerful science-based FORMULA....
