Goldsmith has well expressed 7 . the feeling of every man towards his home; and that country must be really beautiful which is to be preferred to one s own. Among the amusements are rope-dancers and story-tellers : of the former I saw a strolling company at Dehr, and of the latter there is one at every village; he is the oracle of the conversazione, and goes about like a circulating library. Frequently when we moored for the evening, one of these entertainers used to come on board to amuse the crew. The most popular subject is a history of the adventures and miracles of Mohammed--it is by no means uncommon...
