

How Did I Get Here?

By Natalie Allen

Xulon Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 68 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.1in. The warning signs were there. Yield signs. Caution signs. Danger signs. Stop signs. I saw them all along the way. Sometimes they were bold like bright flashing lights. Other times just a soft and subtle voice, urging me to pay attention. But I chose to ignore them, determined to keep moving toward my destination. My passion for ministry and my desire to serve God fueled me and kept me going, until I realized I'd been traveling in the wrong direction. I allowed my environment, circumstances and even people to dictate my course until I finally realized I was nowhere near where I wanted to be. More importantly, I was nowhere near where God wanted me to be. It was time to reevaluate, refocus and redirect. After receiving her Bachelors Degree in Business Management, Natalie pursued her passion for ministry, graduating from Victory International Training Center and Global School Of Ministry. With five years of formal leadership and ministry training and more than ten years of hands on experience, her insight and willingness to share her experiences give her a voice worth listening to.
