With that fleeting fancy passing, he begins his second stint at putting his life down in print. He transfers what s wildly written on paper onto his computer. All his earned, learned and yearned years of life, rife with strife come alive on his computer. Every morning he awakes with the next ten or so pages in his mind written the night before. He writes like a man possessed and he is. He s reliving every moment of his life through writ, bit by bit, and it s wild. Each experience is pushed through the keys on the keyboard. As it passes through him it feels like it s happening now. Smells and scenes of days gone by are so lucid in his mind. He feels physical reactions when writing them down. His memory now is like a snowball rolling down a snow-covered hill recanting every minute detail of his life. He uses coffee as a stimulant. It helps while writing every moment, memory and feeling he has, at every given point in his already lived life. He s amazed...
