Excerpt from The Place of Agriculture in the Secondary School Program It is true that there are dangers at all these points, but they have been pretty well guarded against. Most Of the delegates to the national convention are boys above high school age. Boys may remain active members for three years after being graduated from high school. A national committee of state supervisors Of agricultural education is advisory to the boys organization, so that adult influence upon it is well spread over the country. The two most common Objections to high school fraternities are avoided: there are no secret meetings; membership is Open to any and all high school pupils in vocational agriculture.
