Journey with internationally known, highly successful businessman and award winning author Cecil O. Kemp Jr. , as step by step he unveils the timeless truths to being a genuinely difference-making leader. . . in your family, career, business and all life dimensions. His 27th book does not present leadership theories nor merely principles. Instead, Follow The Leader is based on real world experiences of those who have achieved extraordinary results by applying the state-of-the-art leadership model that Cecil highlights. His own experiences pinpoint key leadership precepts he discovered through personal successes. . . and some painful and expensive failures. Others experiences are shared to demonstrate truths that have had significant influence on his leadership views. Profound leadership wisdom is embedded within his and the stories of both lesser known and highly recognizable individuals. Cecil encourages us that regardless of age, gender, ethnicity or environment, we each are capable of achieving true leadership greatness. How By following history s greatest leader and his leadership model. Cecil shares a comprehensive look into that leader s model and its superiority to...
