Social Sparkle & Shine. Paperback. Condition: New. 274 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Silver Linings Storybook is a collection of authentic, tragic, surprising, and highly relatable personal stories about overcoming hard times in personal and professional life. These stories are shared here to demonstrate proof of the universal truth that as people, we gain strength and character from triumphing over the biggest challenges that come our way. Living a life of relevance and significance is an important element of life for everyone, and discovering what our true purpose and passion is, often comes from learning about where our potential is still untapped, undeveloped, ignored, or forgotten. This book opens a window into the regular lives of 18 amazing people who have shown resourcefulness, perseverance, and a positive attitude can let you create the life you dream of, starting at any time. Each of our coauthors has written about their own life experiences, and how the most confusing, surprising, and challenging situations put them on their path of clear purpose in life. All of the contributors to Silver Linings Storybook are coaches and consultants, business owners and professional speakers - no one yet is a professional book author. Its never too late to show them theyre wrong about you! You can do it, and it will feel good!
