

The War Is Over: A Rose Without Thorns

By MR Natrawn R Wright

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .We are all to blame for all the wars happening around the world today. We embellish and romanticize war so much that kids can actually play it as a video game. A game made from visuals of the real thing. It seems as if the media is controlling our minds with shocking stories giving great ratings for their shows. I am still trying to find a show that focuses on solving the issues or focuses on people who are looking at these issues from the standpoint that we must stop this insane cycle of racism, genocide, systematic control and hate. I love history and political science. This book gives accounts of related events while allowing the reader to reflect on the past while gaining insights as to how we as individuals can make a change and lead the world to do the same. We must try to control the destructive machine that is controlling us. We must remember that we built this machine and have the tools to take it apart. It is a cry...
