Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A spine-tingling, supernatural thriller exploring the ongoing connections we have with our past lives and the reasons we keep coming back to this world, searching for our own version of true justice. Having been summoned by the police, Sonny Clark arrives at his ex-wife's East Village apartment to ID her body. When they tell him her death wasn't just another overdose, but a clear case of murder, Sonny swears to find her killers and make them pay. But the cops don't like the idea of him playing vigilante, and want him to leave town while they investigate. So Sonny heads for the Colorado Rockies to plan what he'll do if they come up short, and once there learns her killers are now coming for him-along with all the others they slaughtered out there over a hundred years ago. Camped near the town of Redemption, Sonny is haunted by visions of people being shot to death and images of a mysterious woman. The other campers tell him a tale of two drifters and the killing spree they went on more than a century ago, suggesting he meet Nora, owner of the general store. Turns out she's the woman in his visions and they feel a strong attraction to each other. She says she's been waiting for him, that they were newlyweds in that other life when two drifters rode into town one day, shot Sonny dead, raped and butchered Nora, and gunned down everyone else they saw. She then shows him photos she's collected of the victims. They look like Sonny, Nora, the campers, and Sonny's ex-wife. After Sonny mentions the strange circumstances...
