

The Memoir of Marilyn Monroe (Paperback)

By Sandi Gelles-Cole

Gelles-Cole Literary Enterprises, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. My so-called death scene is always described the same: My housekeeper, Eunice Murray, finds my wasted, naked body tangled in a sheet, wet from secretions better left unexplained. I am face down with one hand hanging over the telephone. This detail is discussed often; am I answering a call or making one and if I am calling, then whom? But it did not happen that way. I cheated death. Eunice Murray administered an enema of chloral hydrate on the orders of my psychiatrist, Ralph Greenson. My psychiatrist wanted me dead because he could no longer contain me. Eunice Murray wanted me dead because I had fired her and this was her last day on the job. But they didn't succeed, and the reported sightings of Marilyn Monroe still walking the earth are absolutely true. Because here's what happened. Advance Praise for THE MEMOIR OF MARILYN MONROE In her new memoir, Marilyn Monroe, and her editor, Sandi Gelles-Cole, sweep away the ruthlessly exploited icon that has, it turns out been living among us all these years. She leads us...
