

Making an American Festival Chinese New Year in San Franciscos Chinatown

By Chiou-ling Yeh

University of California Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 336 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. This provocative history of the largest annual Chinese celebration in the United States the Chinese New Year parade and beauty pageant in San Francisco opens a new window onto the evolution of one Chinese American community over the second half of the twentieth century. In a vividly detailed account that incorporates many different voices and perspectives, Chiou-ling Yeh explores the origins of these public events and charts how, from their beginning in 1953, they developed as a result of Chinese business community ties with American culture, business, and politics. What emerges is a fascinating picture of how an ethnic community shaped and was shaped by transnational and national politics, economics, ethnic movements, feminism, and queer activism. Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
