I command you to rise up higher than the trees and reach for the sky. Breathe your hot breath onto the land! A wicked twisted laugh spilled forth from the lips of Zandia as she watched her magic obey. Blaize couldn t believe what Zandia had done. How could her best friend, who was once so beautiful and kind, be so consumed by hate and jealousy that it would drive her insane? Zandia is doing everything within her power to rid Fairy Land of her once best friend, Blaize. Blaize loves Zandia as though she was her sister and is determined to help her regardless of what Zandia throws at her. But first, Blaize along with her fellow fairies will have to try and save the forest and all that dwell within. Zandia leaves the safety of Fairy Land and travels through the land of giants and beyond to the Beakmoo Forest where she dreams of a very bitter and angry old giant man named Jeb. Zandia manipulates Jeb through his dreams, she shows him the way to Fairy Land and a little red headed fairy named Blaize to capture and take far, far away. Blaize refuses to give up on Zandia. Blaize, along with her other fairy friends and a beautiful black Pegasus, follow Zandia all the way to the Beakmoo forest and along with the Beakmoos help, they set their plan in motion to save Zandia from herself and bring her home only to come face to face with an old giant man named Jeb.
