PARALLEL COMPUTING USING MIL-STD-1553

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: VDM Verlag Dr. Müller | Design and Implementation of a Parallel Computing System Using MIL-STD-1553 | MIL-STD-1553 is a data communication standard that was first defined by US Air Force in 1973. Although MIL-STD-1553 is approaching its 40th birthday, it is still in use on the aircrafts of western air forces. As the computing elements on aircraft avionics proliferated in time, aircrafts became carriers that have a number of computing nodes. A significant number of these nodes...
